WESTERN CANADA HOCKEY LEAGUE

CALGARY -- For the fourth consecutive season, a player dressed in Flin Flon Bomber garb has captured the Western Canada Hockey League's scoring derby.

Chuck Arnason, 19-year-old sophomore Bomber who led the league in playoff scoring last season, joins Bobby Clarke (1967-68, 1968-69) and Reg Leach (1969-70), former Bombers now in the National Hockey League, as the WCHL's scoring kings.

Arnason passed Saskatoon Blades' Orest Kindrachuk, the scoring leader for the major portion of the season, as the clubs headed into their regular season home stretch. Arnason then won going away -- by 14 points.

He finished with 163, which included a league-leading 79 goals and 84 assists. Kindrachuk's 149 points were comprised of 49 goals and 100 assists.

However, none of the leading totals are league records.

Clarke holds the record for points (168) and assists (117) and Leach for goals (87) -- all set in the 1967-68 season.

Third in the scoring race was Lorne Henning, Estevan Bruins' 18-year-old centre. Henning completed the regular season with 130 point four more than Laurie Yaworski of Saskatoon.

In the goaltending department, Calgary Centennials' Ed Dyc won top honors. The 20-year-old veteran finished the season with a 2 goals-against average, which was 47 percentage points better than Estevan's Grant Green. Green led the league in shutouts with five, one more than Dyck, Flin Flon's Cal Hammond and Kevan Migneault o toon.

Estevan's Glen Irwin captured league badman honors by picking up 261 minutes in penalties, while Flin Flon's Bob McKin was the runnerup with 246.

1970-71

WESTERN CANADA HOCKEY LEAGUE

R. J. BUTLIN
PRESIDENT

406 TEXACO BUILDING
CALGARY 1, ALBERTA
262-2626, AREA CODE 403

CALGARY — It took the final game of the season to determine the Western Canada Hockey League's 1970-71 playoff scoring championship.

Chuck Arrmason of Flin Flon Bombers and Dan Spring of Edmonton Oil Kings were deadlocked for the lead with 33 points each going into the final contest. Arrmason, although Bombers were beaten 7-6, assisted on four goals, while Spring drew two assists.

Arrmason's 37 points gave him his second straight playoff title. He also finished first in the regular season scoring race this season.

The 37 points were divided between 15 goals and a league-leading 22 assists. Spring's output was split between 20 goals, a league high, and 15 helpers.

Oil Kings' Dave Kryskow finished third with 33 points, three more than Bombers' captain Gene Carr.

The league's top four point-getters are all eligible for the amateur draft this spring.

Seventeen-year-old Blaine Stoughton of Flin Flon finished fifth with 26 points, one more than Don Kozak, Oil Kings' 18-year-old right-winger.

In the goaltending department, Calgary Centennials' Ed Dyck compiled a 2.71 goals-against average in 11 games to set the pace. Dyck, also the circuit's top netminder throughout the regular season, led the league's playoff goalies in 1969-70. Cal Hammond of Flin Flon and Mike Schneider of Winnipeg Jets recorded the WCHL's only playoff shutouts.

Bombers' Ken Baird led the league in playoff penalties, sitting out 119 minutes. The Winnipeg pair of Larry Bolonchuk and Reg Malinoski followed with 66 and 63 minutes, respectively. Bombers' Blaine Stoughton sat out 61 minutes.
